

Are you interested in distance learning? Have you heard the buzz about interactive videoconferencing in schools across the nation? If you'd like to experience this powerful way of engaging students in their lessons, plan on attending one of the many NMSA conference Distance Learning events powered by TANDBERG!

- Thursday, 8:30 am: FREE Workshop: Videoconferencing: Going Global, Being Green and Saving $$ in the 21st Century Classroom, Room 212
- Thursday, 10:30 am: Featured Session Speaker, Adora Svitak: A Kid's Eye View of the Innovative Green Classroom, Sagamore Ballroom 4.
- Thursday and Friday: NMSA 21st Century Classroom, See students from School 91 and Clay Middle School interact with content and people across America.
- Saturday, 8:30 am: NMSA 21st Century Classroom, Observe students from Lynnhurst Center, IN. interacting with Jacques Twinger Junior School students in Strasbourg, France.
- Saturday, 8:30-12:00, Experience a series of Virtual Fieldtrips hosted by the Center for Interactive Learning and Collaboration, NMSA 21st Century Classroom.